from the ground up as this site does is good at awareness and shaming offenders but i think a top down approach is also needed as stated above, driving under the influence of prescription meds is just as bad as driving under the influence of alcohol or street drugs.

nearly 70 percent of seniors are not insured, according to a study compiled by oral health america