the researchers also noted significant differences among racial groups and regions of the country.

starting treatment in patients being treated w other maois (eg, linezolid, iv methylene blue).

after a day or three, they reluctantly put it through but the next month it's the same all over again.