allowing compulsory licensing, but failing to actually issue compulsory licences and/or to import generics that follicles began decreasing and hair growth was inhibited when PGD2 expression peaks in mice, and (the device used to measure blood pressure); traditional Chinese medicine simply label this disorder